

Recognize, Refuse, and Report Consumer Fraud

Join us for a FREE educational event with special guests:

- Colorado Attorney General John Suthers
- AARP ElderWatch Director Amy Nofziger
- AARP Colorado Program Assistant Cathy Lasnik

Wednesday September 23, 2009

9:00 a.m.-10:30 a.m. ■ Free program and breakfast
Parkplace ■ 111 Emerson Street, Denver, CO 80218

Additional parking available at 2nd & Washington

Presented by Brookdale Senior Living, in collaboration with AARP ElderWatch and AARP's Create the Good project.

You'll Learn

- > About the latest scams affecting Coloradans.
- > Red flags of fraud.
- > How to help your loved ones and friends.

To register and for more information

please call 303-318-6764.
Seating is limited, so please register early.

Staff and volunteers will be on-site to add your phone number to the Colorado No-Call List. Also, we can help you print off your free credit report if you have not checked your report in the last year. Please mention your interest in this service when you RSVP.

Discover the hundreds of ways AARP helps
you make a difference
in your community at CreateTheGood.org.

