MAN PLEADS GUILTY TO CARELESS DRIVING RESULTING IN INJURY

A man accused of falling asleep while driving and running into a food cart vendor has pleaded guilty today in Denver County Court.

Mead Myers (dob: 03-12-79) pleaded guilty as charged to careless driving resulting in serious bodily injury (M1). A second charge of driving without a valid license was dismissed.

On June 27, 2009, Myers fell asleep while driving on Sheridan Boulevard near Kentucky Avenue and crashed into a street corner food cart operated by Pedro Hernandez. The 27 year-old victim sustained numerous serious injuries.

Myers is scheduled to appear in Denver County Courtroom 100K for sentencing on June 1, 2010.
