MAN CHARGED IN MARIJUANA ROBBERY

Denver District Attorney Mitch Morrissey has formally charged a man today in connection with a kidnapping and robbery incident that occurred at a dispensary selling marijuana for medical purposes.

Myles Stephens (DOB: 03-11-89) is charged with three counts of first-degree kidnapping (F2), three counts of aggravated robbery (F3), and three counts of first-degree burglary (F3).

The charges allege that on October 26, 2010, Stephens ambushed three people leaving a marijuana dispensary in the 4600 block of East Colfax Avenue, forced them back inside and stole cash and marijuana from them at gunpoint. Stephens was arrested a short time later after a brief foot pursuit. An additional suspect remains at large.

Stephens remains in custody in the Denver Detention Center; his bond is set at $100,000. He is scheduled to appear in Denver County Courtroom 2100 on November 3, 2010, at 10:30 a.m. to be formally advised of the charges.
