MAN SENTENCED TO 192-TO-LIFE FOR ATTACK ON TEENAGER

A 39-year-old man recently convicted in the kidnapping and sexual assault of a teenage girl in 2003 has been convicted today of being a habitual criminal and was sentenced to a prison term that will keep him in prison for the rest of his life.

Derrick Wilson (dob: 12-11-70) was sentenced to 192 years indeterminate to life in the Colorado Department of Corrections by Denver District Court Judge Michael Martinez.

Wilson was found guilty last December of second-degree kidnapping, sexual assault and unlawful sexual contact. He had been accused of forcibly dragging a 16-year-old girl from a public sidewalk and sexually assaulting her at gunpoint under a tree in the 9700 block of East Girard Avenue.
