MAN GETS 40 YEARS IN BABY'S DEATH

A man accused in the death of his 3-week-old son a little over a year ago has been sentenced to 40 years in prison today.

Travis Anderson (dob: 06-12-83) was found guilty last November of child abuse resulting in death (F2) and manslaughter (F4) in the beating death of his infant son, Sean Anderson

He had faced up to 48 years in prison, and Chief Deputy District Attorney Bonnie Benedetti argued for the maximum sentence citing not only the brutal injuries inflicted on the baby but also the lengthy delay in seeking medical attention.

The baby's mother, Crystal Eccleston, is currently serving a 14-year sentence in the Colorado Department of Corrections for child abuse resulting in death; she failed to seek care for the baby after learning of his injuries.
