TWO CHARGED WITH FIRST-DEGREE MURDER

Denver District Attorney Mitch Morrissey has formally charged two men in connection with the murder of 19-year-old Randy Canister earlier this year.

Qashelby Frazier-Moore (dob: 11-18-94) and Kentrall Hines (dob: 8-11-96) are charged with first-degree murder (F1) and felony murder (F1).

The charges allege that on the evening February 17, 2015, Frazier-Moore and Hines were in a car with the victim. The charges further allege that they shot the victim and then left his body on the side of the street at East Robins Drive and Ireland Street.

Frazier-Moore and Hines remain in custody and are being held without bond; their next court date has not been set.
